

Published Date:	22 Nov 2024	Publication:	The Economic Times [Bangalore]
Journalist:	Bureau	Page No:	11
MAV/CCM:	70,048/21.89	Circulation:	40,570

Emami MD Harsha Agarwal Takes Over as FICCI Chief

Our Bureau

1 New Delhi: Harsha Vardhan Agarwal, vice-chairman & managing director, Emami, on Thursday, took over as president of Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce & Industry's (FICCI) for 2024-25.

Agarwal succeeds Anish Shah, Group CEO of the Mahindra Group and the managing director of Mahindra & Mahindra.

Anant Goenka, vice-chairman, RPG Group has been elevated as senior vice-president from vice-president.

Vijay Sankar, chairman, the Sanmar Group, has joined the FICCI leadership as vice-president.

Agarwal, a second-generation leader of the $3.1-billion Emami Group, was picked as one of India's Hottest Young Business Leaders by The Economic Times & Spencer Stuart in 2016 under the 'FORTY UNDER 40' list.

Anant Goenka, vice-chairman, RPG group, was the managing director & CEO of CEAT, an Indian multinational tyre manufacturing company, between 2012 and 2023.

Sankar who has joined FICCI as vice-president heads the Sanmar Group, headquartered in Chennai and has manufacturing facilities in Mexico, Egypt and South India.